

Kompose is an application which allows multiple participants to share their music with others at social events. Participant can influence the music to be played by adding own songs to the play queue or voting for the removal of unpopular songs

